

English Bio
ARMANO - Blues and Roots Music

Armano is a songwriter from Bamberg, Germany, who carries a guitar in his hand and the open road on his mind. Inspired by early Blues, Outlaw Country, and American Roots Music, he channels the spirit of legends like Charley Patton or Frank Stokes. With distinctive fingerstyle guitar picking and a voice shaped by years of performing on street corners and in noisy bars, Armano takes the audience to places they didn't know they were missing. This well-traveled troubadour has released three records and performed with artists like Scott H. Biram, Possessed by Paul James, and Bob Wayne. Between writing songs and performing solo, Armano also spent the last decade touring internationally with his bands OPORTO and THE SEE SEE RIDERS.
